27th Annual WORLD TRADE DAY Luncheon MAD ABOUT TRADE

featuring

Daniel Griswold
Director, Center for Trade Policy Studies at the Cato Institute in Washington, DC and author of

MAD ABOUT TRADE: Why Main Street America Should Embrace Globalization

Thursday, April 8, 2010
11:30 a.m.

The Westin Huntsville
at Bridge Street Town Centre
Mediterranean Ballroom

Mad about Trade explains in plain English how important more open trade has been in growing the American middle class and how devastating it would be were we to reverse course, as some politicians have suggested. It is very tempting for American politicians to blame economic problems on free trade, globalization, or both. Griswold comprehensively and credibly shows how it would hurt the very people that politicians presume to help! —CLAYTON YEUTTER, FORMER U.S. TRADE REPRESENTATIVE
