at The Ledges • 32 Castle Down Drive • Huntsville • 35802
Followed by NAITA's Annual Holiday Party • 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Michael R. Sheehy, Chief, Foreign Disclosure & Technology Transfer, Missile Defense Agency, will lead a discussion on the delineation of public domain, public release, and foreign disclosure functions and their role in advancing international objectives while protecting critical technologies.

Time will be available for Q&A and discussion following the presentation. Questions related to this presentation are also encouraged in advance and can be sent to naita@naita.org.

About our Speaker:

Mr. Michael R. Sheehy joined the Missile Defense Agency as the Chief of Foreign Disclosure and Technology Transfer in June 2009. In this capacity, he directs foreign disclosure, technology transfer, export licensing, foreign and small business investment review, and foreign visit functions for a $7.9 billion defense agency with expansive international engagement and complex technical and statutory considerations. Prior to joining MDA, Mike served twenty six years in the Army as a Military Police and Foreign Area Officer, retiring as the Chief Operating Officer of the Operational Protection Directorate for the US Army in Europe. Mike enjoyed ten years of international postings in Europe, Latin America, the Middle East, and South Asia, and he speaks several languages.

His professional affiliations include the Society for International Affairs, Foreign Area Officer Association, International Association of Chiefs of Police, Military Police Regimental Association, Retired Military Police Officers (Association), and the Military Officers Association of America. He has a master's degree in international studies and a bachelor's in political science.
