Guatemala is the largest and most highly developed country in Central America. With over 14 million inhabitants, its geographic proximity in the center of a large regional market, a growing economy, and a very diverse tourist destination – Guatemala has every reason to be your destination.

- Join us for the unveiling of the Guatemalan Tourism Board's (INGUAT) new tourism campaign. Guatemala is a paradise for diversified tourism. Points of interest include the Mundo Maya (Maya World, ecological tourism, colonial monuments and the Caribbean and Pacific Coast beaches.
- Considering investing in Guatemala? The advantages are obvious with ports in both the Pacific and Atlantic oceans, sea cargo travel distances to the U.S. of up to 3 days, 150 minute flights to Miami or Houston, ground transportation through Mexico and the same time zone of the U.S. Central region.
- Do you have products being shipped to Guatemala? Learn about the new electronic customs clearing system and the impact this will have on getting your products in and out of Guatemala.
